

AMERICAN ADAGES SOCIETY

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Big Wisdom, small sentences.

WHAT IS AN ADAGE?

A short, memorable saying that conveys a universal truth or practical piece of wisdom that has stood the test of time.

THREE ADAGES WORTH KNOWING

“Fortune Favors the bold.”

Take calculated risks;
delay dulls reward.

“A stitch in time saves nine.”

Fix small problems early to avoid bigger ones later.

“Actions speak louder than words.”

Deeds reveal intent more clearly than promises.

WHY JOIN THE AAS?

- ✓ Decode the origins, meanings, and modes relevance of timeless sayings.
- ✓ Contribute to an evolving archive of American adages.
- ✓ Engage in lively discussions, guest talks, and creative projects that turn old wisdom into refreshing insight.

JOIN IN ON THE FUN!

Become a founding member and help shape the culture of the American Adages Society from day one. Join us in proving that a few well-chosen words can still move minds.

CONTACT

Sebastian Kiteka | FOUNDER

✉ sebastiankiteka@utexas.edu